CITY DRUGGISTS COMBINE.

THEY WILL FIGHT THE MANUFACTURERS OF PATENT MEDICINES.

Will Resist the Placing of Proprietary Preparations With Department Houses—A Company to Be Formed to Supply Association Remedies.

Were the flaring headlines that greeted the public's eye in yesterday morning's Journal.

We don't wish to make a second appeal to the public, as we believe you are already with us. But the Kansas City druggists have combined still closer, and are determined at all hazards to stop us from buying goods and thus keep up the exorbitant prices they are now getting. They announce that they are going to discontinue the sale of the leading patent medicines and force the public to buy their stuff instead. Do you want to be thus virtually robbed by this high-handed robbing combine? We don't think so.

The people have come to our rescue nobly, and in spite of the Kansas City Pharmaceutical Association (of which we are not members), and the robbing combine, we are still going to sell you at from 25 to 50 per cent less than any druggist in the city.

A few sample prices will convince you of this:

- Robbing Combine, 10c
- Pierce's Favorite, 10c
- Pierce's Kidney, 10c
- Hood's Sarsaparilla, 10c
- Cody Compound, 10c
- Castoria, 10c
- Little Liver Pills, 10c

Remember the above prices are samples of the prices we make on everything in the house from the front door to the back.

Do you think the druggists' combine has been robbing you?

The people are with us and we are with the people.

AND STILL WE SMILE!

ANTHONY MOVED TO WRATH.

Caustic Criticism of Auditor Cole Becomes Cause of Wrath.

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 20.—(Special.) State Superintendent of Insurance George T. Anthony does not bring his well known amiability very prominently to the front in discussing the ruling recently made by State Auditor Cole that he must pay out of his own pocket, the $100 expense incurred by him in attending the national convention of insurance commissioners. To the Journal correspondent, who asked him for his opinion upon the ruling, he replied:

"I have only to repeat that which all intelligent men already understand, that the ambitious young auditor has succeeded, for the present, in leaving a contribution upon the shoulders of the public. He should not be blamed for it, for he is so completely dazzled by the glamour of official exaltation, and enveloped in the mist of self-importance, that he could not see through them to distinguish the difference between a 'junking' court, in nature and in fact, and a court of justice. The state will, in due time, recognize the fact, and the auditor will be glad to see it. Not only this, but it will gradually remember that it is not for its two-for-a-cent statesmen have passed from public memory."

PAT CROWE PLEADS GUILTY.

Not to Train Robbery, With Which He Is Charged, but to Jail Breaking—Sentence Imposed.

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 20.—(Special.) Train Robber Pat Crowe pleaded guilty to the charge of jail breaking in court today, after he had already entered a plea of not guilty. Sentence cannot be passed on the prisoner until he has had his trial for the crime of train robbery, which is set for December 1. If Crowe is convicted of jail breaking, his sentence will be from one to five years in the penitentiary, but should he establish his innocence of the jail breaking, he will be free to fight his case for the offense to which he pleaded guilty.

TRAIN WRECKERS CONFESS.

Boys Who Ditched the New York Central Train Will Be Tried for Murder in the First Degree.

Rome, N. Y., Nov. 20.—(Special.) Hilbard and Lutz, two of the lads implicated in the wrecking of the New York Central train near this place Tuesday morning, have made a full confession. Bristol, the fourth of the gang, denies his guilt. They will be put on trial for murder in the first degree, charged with the killing of the engineer and the conductor, and with the murder of the passengers. Hilbard told the officers today that the attempt to wreck a train ten days ago was directed against the one with the most money, and that he was the only one who carried rich express. The preliminary hearing was held today, and the judge decided that the next trial would be better, because the defendants were likely to be wealthy people.

CHARLEY MARTIN'S CANDIDACY.

Assumed That He Will Be Reading Clerk of the National House of Representatives.

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 20.—(Special.) Charles Martin, of Salina, who has been serving in the office of the secretary of state, left tonight for Washington, where he goes to personally look after his candidacy for reading clerk of the national house of representatives. He has the support of the United States delegation and is backed by the influence of Thomas H. Reed, "the man from Maine."

THRIFTY COLLEGE STUDENTS.

Put in Their Spare Time Robbing Residences and Accumulated $5,000 Worth of Plunder—Both Arrested.

Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 20.—The mystery of the burglaries that have been baffling the police for three weeks past was solved yesterday by the arrest of C. G. Humphrey, of Utica, and C. C. Miller, of Batavia, two young college students, the former a sophomore and the latter a freshman. A wagonload of stolen property was found in the prisoners' room at North college. It is estimated that the amount of plunder taken by the two students will reach $5,000 in value. They were not driven to crime by poverty, the families of both being well-to-do. Both were prominent in their college activities. The preliminary examination was held today, when both pleaded not guilty. They were held for the grand jury.

APPLAGATE'S MURDER.

Bill Hiddy, With Whom Applagate Once Had Trubbing, Found Arrested in Iowa on Suspicion.

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 20.—(Special.) A requisition has been issued by Governor Morrill for the return of Bill Hiddy, who is suspected of being the murderer of William Applagate in Norton county. Evidence has accumulated that Hiddy was in the vicinity of the Applagate farm on the date of the murder, and it has transpired that he and the murdered man had had trouble in Colorado some four years ago over a woman, at which time Hiddy had threatened to shoot Applagate. Sheriff Beaton, of Norton, caused the arrest of Hiddy at Mount Airy, Ia., yesterday and started after him last night, armed with his regulation.

GOVERNOR MORRILL SAYS HE WILL SET OUT THE HANDSOME TREE TO BE FOUND.

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 20.—(Special.) Governor Morrill has written to certain citizens of Leavenworth who complained about the cutting down of the tree planted in the state house grounds by the late Governor Thomas Carney, that he will replace it in the spring in a conspicuous place by the handsome tree he can lay hands on.

The Carney tree was cut down by a house mover, who was taking a house across the state house grounds without permission. The tree was an elm, planted by Governor Carney's own hands in 1864.

UTTERED FORGED NOTES.

Crooked Work of Steel City, Neb., Bank Officials Comes to Light—Pres.

Steel City, Neb., Nov. 20.—The more the affairs of the defunct Steel City bank are investigated the more ugly they appear. It is now generally believed that its president, C. H. Rice, will never return to town and that every piece of property he owned here has been attached. The worst phase of the bank's failure was brought to light when it was discovered that a large number of forged notes had been passed by the bank's officials and disposed of at a discount to banks at St. Joseph and Kansas City. Several hundred men have received notices from the State National bank of Kansas City, that they had been paid in these bogus notes and were asked to return them.

FOUND HANGING TO A TREE.

Robert Worley, a Southeastern Missouri Farmer, Caught to His Death by Four Men and Brutally Murdered.

Dexter, Mo., Nov. 20.—On Sunday night last, Robert Worley, a farmer living about twenty miles south of here, was called to his door by a man named Early, and three companions, and taken away. Monday his dismembered body was found hanging to a tree. It appears that Worley and Early had a personal encounter a few days ago and Early was worsted. Early has been arrested and his companions are unknown.

MILLER CONVICTED.

ANOTHER ELECTION CONSPIRATOR HAS BEEN PUNISHED.

GIVEN A TWO YEARS' PENALTY.

HEAVIEST YET IMPOSED UPON BALLOT OFFENDERS.

The Jury Out More Than One Hour—The Arguments and the Scenes Before and After the Verdict—Miller Interviewed in the County Jail.

Wallace G. Miller, clerk of Justice Krueger's court, was found guilty by a jury in the criminal court at Independence yesterday of violating the election law and his punishment was fixed at two years in the state penitentiary. The case was given to the jury at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon and at 5:15 a verdict was reached.

Three ballots were taken by the jurors in determining the guilt of the defendant. The first ballot stood eleven for conviction and one for acquittal. The next ballot was unanimous for conviction and the third ballot decided the punishment. The jury was polled then discharged.

When the clerk read the verdict all eyes in the court room were turned toward the defendant. Miller turned pale but did not seem to show any nervousness until some of the jurors stepped forward and congratulated him. His manner indicated that at least there would be a hung jury.

It was not until Deputy Marshal Ross summoned young Miller to take him to jail that he realized fully the import of the verdict. The prisoner then gave way to grief.

Mrs. Miller, wife of the prisoner, was in the court room when the verdict was brought in. During the afternoon she was often by his side. A few minutes before the jury was brought in she slipped quietly into the sheriff's office and there she remained until her husband reached his cell. She then returned to her home.

The jurors who sat in the case started yesterday that at no time after all the evidence was in did they believe that young Miller was not guilty of the crime charged. The testimony in the case was not relied on so much as the records showing the alphabetical enumeration of voters made by Miller.

Miller's attorneys were not in the court room at the time the verdict was received. They, like the defendant, believed that he would be acquitted or a hung jury would result.

Santa Claus

Will be at the Big Store on Saturday, Nov. 23—next Saturday—and wants to see all of his little friends. He asked us to extend to all of the little children of Kansas City and vicinity a most cordial invitation to come and see him. He also requests as many as possibly can to come in the morning as he has so many little friends he can't see and shake hands with them all in the afternoon.

To the Mothers

Of the little children, who so delight in seeing Santa Claus, we say that, considering the great pleasure the little ones get out of such an occasion as this, it is almost an imperative duty for you to bring your children down here next Saturday.
